

FAMILY CAROLS with ROYSTON CHORAL SOCIETY

Saturday 21st December 7.30 pm

King James Academy (Meridian school site SG8 7HJ)

Royston Choral Society is very excited to be welcoming J50 Brass back to Royston to accompany their Christmas concert on Saturday 21st December. J50 have wowed local audiences several times with their accompaniment of choir and audience seasonal singing.

J50 Brass were founded in London in 2008. The group have since gone on to perform at the 'BBC Good Food Show' and 'Gardeners' World Live' (both at Birmingham NEC); charity functions at London Olympia Hilton Hotel and solo concerts across the capital.

Their musical interests range from the indigenous folk music of Europe to commissions for the film and video game industry, baroque and early music and more.

With the scent of mulled wine and mince pies, audience participation and J50 Brass Royston Choral Society will ensure a merry and bright start to Christmas

Tickets £14, Concessions £10, School students £1 Programme included

For tickets see website: <http://www.roystonchoralsoc.org.uk>

Tel. Caroline Franks 01920 822723 or ask a choir member